TOUCHDOWN

“There are some parts of the world that, once visited, get into your heart and won't go. For me, India is such a place. When I first visited, I was stunned by the richness of the land, by its lush beauty and exotic architecture, by its ability to overload the senses with the pure, concentrated intensity of its colors, smells, tastes, and sounds. It was as if all my life I had been seeing the world in black and white and, when brought face-to-face with India, experienced everything re-rendered in brilliant technicolor.”

Day 1 – Jaipur / Shahpura Bagh

Morning depart for Shahpura Bagh by surface from Jaipur. (225 Kms / 04 hours)

On arrival at Shahpura Bagh check-in at hotel.

In the early 1900's, Rajadhiraj Nahar Singh of Shahpura mortgaged the family's private property and jewels to bring water to his people. Today, the lakes he created, form the heart of a verdant wetland refuge - historic, picturesque, tranquil - an idyllic setting where man and nature have come to understand each other.

Day 4 – In Udaipur

We begin our tour of the historic city of Udaipur from the royal City Palace. City Palace towers over Lake Pichola. The main part of the palace is a museum displaying a large and diverse array of artefacts. There is also the armory museum exhibiting a huge collection of protective gear, weapons including the lethal two-pronged sword. Each quarter of the City Palace offers something different like the Manak Mahal which has a lovely collection of glass and mirror work, Krishna Vilas displays a rich collection of miniature paintings, the Moti Mahal has beautiful mirror work and the Chini Mahal has ornamental tiles all over. But the most noteworthy among these is the 129 year old Crystal Gallery at the Fateh Prakash Palace. The gallery showcases some of the most lustrous, rare and precious crystal from the royal treasure. These precious crystals were ordered from the famous manufacturers F and C Osler Company around 1877 A.D.

After that most famous temple of the Udaipur the Jagdish Temple. The temple was built in 1651 with Indo-Aryan style architecture. This three storey temple dedicated to Lord Vishnu, has the most beautifully carved pillars, decorated ceilings, painted walls and lush halls. Evening enjoy a boat ride at Lake Pichola with the setting sun making the experience ever so magical
