

Dr Ng Kim Swan – CV

Affiliation: Department of Anaesthesiology, Intensive care & Pain Management, Hospital Selayang

Award/Title: Master of Anaesthesiology (USM)

Statement of expertise: Chronic Pain Management (Interventional Pain Procedures and Cognitive Behavioural Therapy), Regional Anaesthesia and Analgesia, Cancer Pain Management

Biography: Dr Ng is a Consultant Anaesthetist from Hospital Selayang since 2004

She Completed the Pain Management Sub-speciality training & gazetted as pain specialist in 2011. She has been running the pain clinic in Hospital Selayang since joining training in 2008, has been working with Dr Mary since then. Currently she is the Head of Unit for the Pain Management Team in Hospital Selayang. She is also being the main person in-charged of the multi-disciplinary Pain Management Programme in Hospital Selayang

Dr Ng is the life member for the Malaysia Association for the Study of pain; and member of International Association for the study of Pain and Malaysian Society of Anaesthesiologist.

As a pain specialist, she has been the speaker, trainer & facilitators in many pain intervention workshops and pain conferences. In addition, Dr Ng has the special interest in regional block and she is one of the pioneer anaesthetist who has been very active in promoting regional Block and she has been invited regularly as the facilitator for workshops in regional nerve block and pain block locally as well as internationally