Invitation

Dear colleagues,

It gives us great pleasure to invite you all to 'WODECON 2019', the first national conference of the Indian Women's Dermatologic Association (IWDA).

We have put together a comprehensive program with scientific as well as slice of life topics with renowned national and international speakers. This is a fine educational opportunity for delegates and is expected to see a large participation of eminent men and women dermatologists.

We look forward to your presence.

See you in Delhi !
