

Dr. Deepali Chaudhary's Profile

- Dr. Deepali Chaudhary joined Munich Re in 2008. She has over 14 years of experience in the life and health insurance industry. She is a member of the Life and health team and is involved in coordination of Claims, Underwriting and Risk management practices for Munich Re's Life and Health business in South Asia. She coordinates the various services provided to Munich Re clients including life and health product development, training, underwriting and claims case consultation. Prior to joining Munich Re Deepali worked in the underwriting department of a leading multinational insurance company and also worked in clinical practice. She has completed her Bachelor of Homeopathic Medicine and Surgery, Mumbai University