

Tamil Nadu Skill Development Corporation

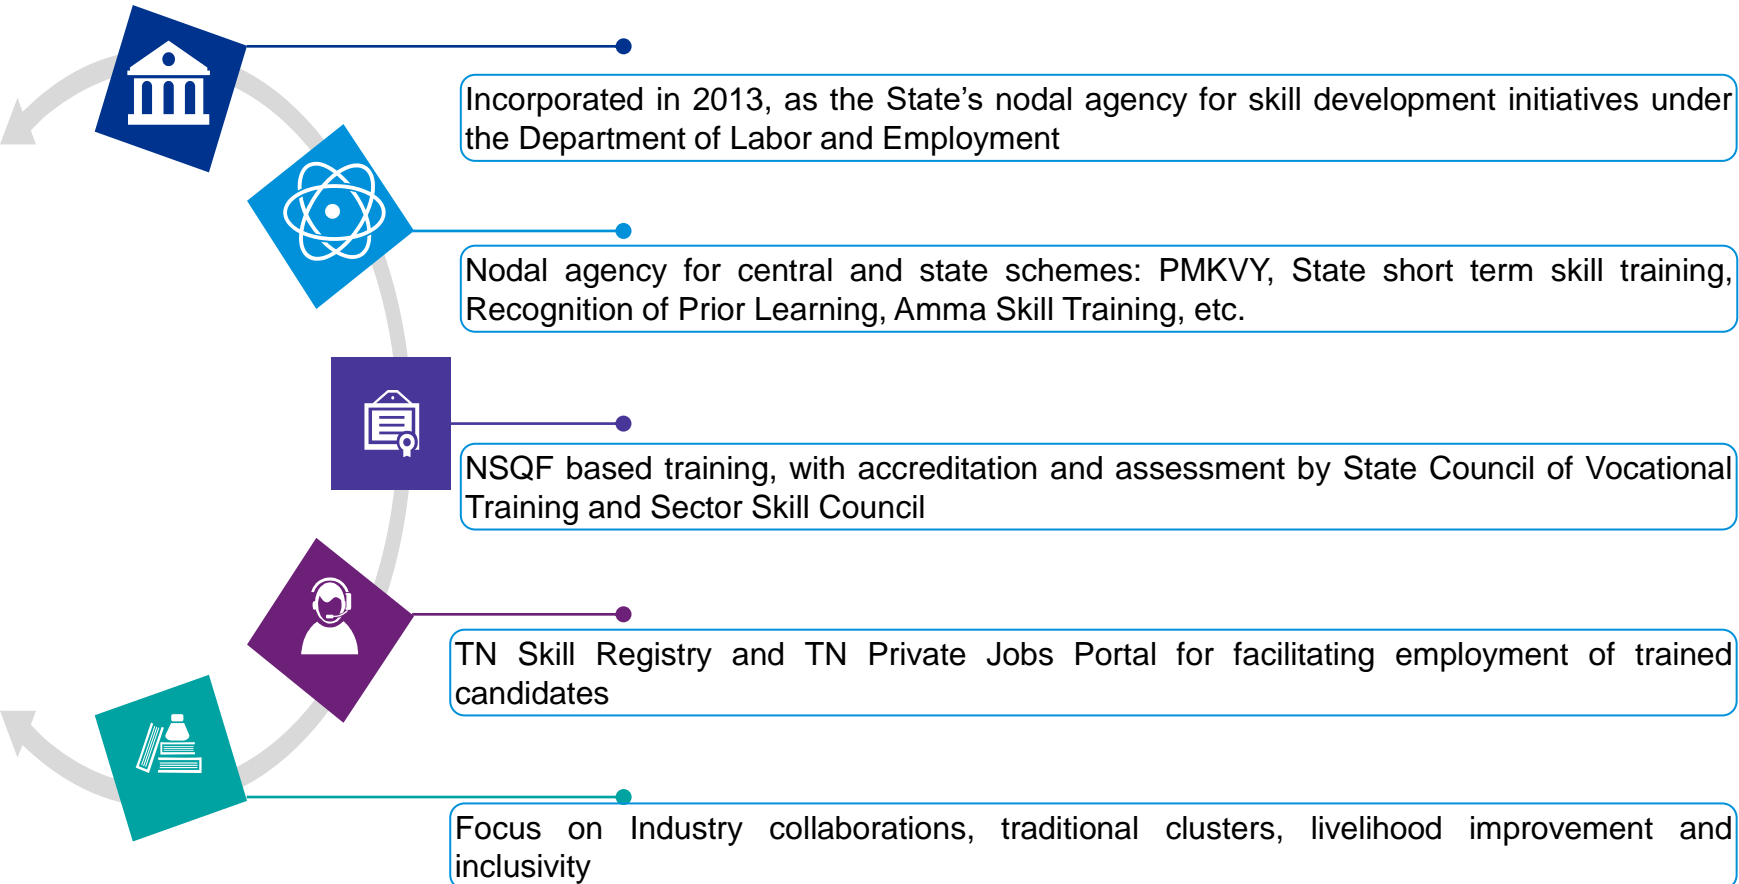

Department of Labour and Employment

Tamil Nadu State Skill Development Corporation

Mission

Imparting Employable Skills for harnessing the power of youth towards nation building

250+ Job roles

750,000
Skilled Youth

20+ Sectors

300+ Training
partners

20+
Mega Job fairs

37
District
placement cells

Our Impact

Focus shift towards placement led trainings

Siemens - Centre of excellence

14 labs established in the CoE

1. Product Design and Validation Laboratory
2. Advanced Manufacturing Laboratory
3. Test and Optimisation Laboratory
4. Rapid Prototype Laboratory
5. NC Programming Laboratory
6. CNC Machine Laboratory
7. Lift Installation and Maintenance Laboratory
8. Electrical Laboratory
9. Process Instrumentation Laboratory
10. Automation Laboratory
11. Mechatronics Laboratory
12. Automotive Body Repair Laboratory
13. Automotive Paint Shop Laboratory
14. Robotics Laboratory

Apex Skill Development Centres

Vision

- Envisioned to be state-of-the-art Centre of Excellence across 5 sectors: Auto, Auto Components & Machine tools, Hospital and Health Care Services and Transportation, Construction & Logistics
- The objectives of these centres are to Provide high end sector specific skill development trainings, Create a pool of qualified and professional trainers

Investment

- Tamil Nadu Government committed to invest ~ INR 100 Crore across the 5 sectors

Partners

Healthcare

- Launched on Nov 5th, courses for COVID-19, first responder commenced

Automobile

- Focussed on emerging skills in the sector (i.e.) electric vehicles

Logistics

- Launched on Nov 5th, courses to be launched in coming months

Construction

- Under development in Ariyalur
- Special focus on increasing FLFP in the sector

BFSI

- Focussed on emerging areas in such as fintech
- Courses to be launched in coming months

Other initiatives

Promoting participation in WorldSkills

- ❖ District Level Skill competitions across 32 districts for 6273 participants in 47 skills
- ❖ 16 candidates from Tamil Nadu in Regional Skill Summit and 9 qualify for India Skills 2018
- ❖ District Skill Innovation Hubs proposed in partnership with Industry

Promoting Equity and Inclusiveness

- ❖ Initiatives for Career Guidance and Skill Training for Juvenile Offenders and Transgender Community in collaboration with TN Police and TNSACs respectively
- ❖ Focused initiatives to target Differently abled persons

Promoting Livelihood Promotion and Traditional Clusters

- ❖ Implementation of World Bank funded SANKALP program for promotion of livelihood and employability
- ❖ Renewed focus on imparting skill training for regional cluster specific handicrafts

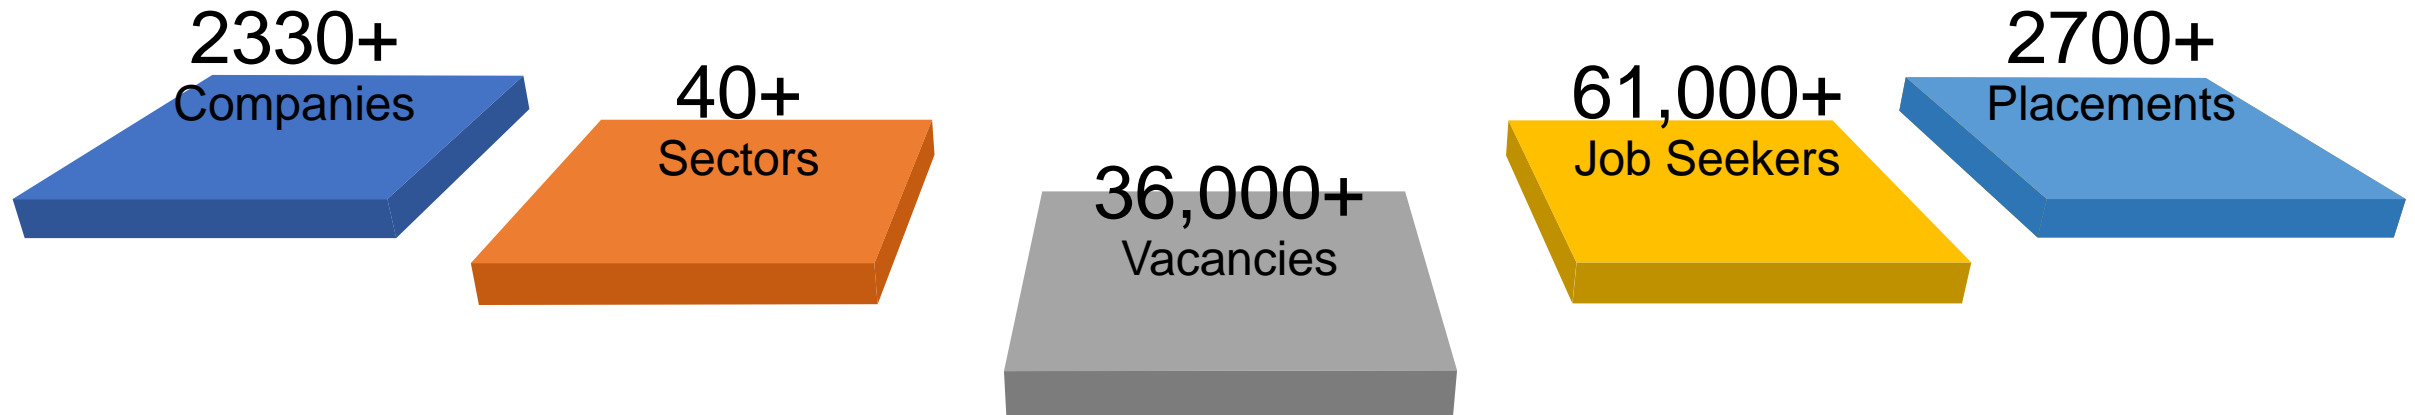

Enabling Demand Driven Skill Training

- ❖ Non Resident Tamil Skill Registry implemented
- ❖ State and District Level Skill Gap Study undertaken in 2018
- ❖ Labor Market Information System proposed for future demand estimation

Employment Initiatives by TNSDC

- Private Job Portal launched on August 2020 to enhance placements across the state
- TNSDC has conducted 20+ targeted job fairs across the state

<https://www.tnprivatejobs.tn.gov.in/>

Expectations from Industry Partners

It is expected that TNSDC ties up with Industry Partners for candidate absorption

Industry Partners are expected to tie up with TNSDC and offer models of placements

Industry Partners can work with TNSDC as Captive Employers or Knowledge Partners or OJT Partners or Apprenticeship Partners or as may be the case

Meet the Team

K. Veera Raghava
Rao, IAS

Managing Director

K Veera Raghava Rao IAS is the Managing Director of Tamil Nadu Skill Development Corporation and Director of Department of Employment & Training where he heads the critical sector of creating an employable skilled workforce for the development of the state of Tamil Nadu.

R. Maheswaran.

Project Director

R. Maheswaran is the Project Director at Tamil Nadu Skill Development Corporation and handles the operations of implementing key skilling schemes in Tamil Nadu such as the Short-Term Skilling scheme, PMKVY, and the Apex Skill Development Centres

A close-up photograph of a person's hands weaving on a traditional loom. The loom is filled with numerous parallel yellow threads. The person's hands are dark-skinned and are actively manipulating the threads. A blue cylindrical object, likely a shuttle, is visible in the lower center. In the upper right, there are some colorful threads (pink and green) hanging from the loom. The background is a warm, orange-brown color.

Thank You