Ex Amritsar -
Dalhousie
02 Night / 03 Days

Day 01: Amritsar - Dalhousie Local After breakfast, check-out from the hotel and drive to Dalhousie. Visit St. John's Church, St. Francis church at Subhash Chowk and St. John's Church at Gandhi Chowk. Subhash Baoli is a picturesque site surrounded by majestic trees and snowcapped peaks, named after Subhash Chandra Bose, the famous Indian freedom fighter, who had spent a lot of time here meditating. Panchpula is a waterfall, and an amazing picnic spot in Dalhousie, surrounded by a cover of fresh, green pine and deodar trees,. The spot where five streams come together. A Samadhi is built near Panchpula in the memory of a great revolutionary, Sardar Ajit Singh (Uncle of Martyr Bhagat Singh), who breathed his last here. Moreover, the pristine water is best enjoyed during monsoon when the water gushes down the falls and the surroundings leave you stupefied. Kalatop Wildlife Sanctuary, located in the picturesque hilly Chambal district of Himachal Pradesh. The name Kalatop means 'black cap', which probably refers to the thick black forest cover on the highest hilltop in the sanctuary. The trekking and hiking trails in the Kalatop Sanctuary offers a pristine, mesmerizing experience with nature and one of the best means to explore the beautiful untouched forests. Overnight Stay @ Dalhousie

Day 02: Trip to Khajjiar & Chamba After breakfast, drive to Khajjiar to spend the day in what is called India's 'mini-Switzerland'. Khajjiar is among the 160 places in the world that was officially given the title because of its resemblance to the lovely landscapes in Switzerland. The lush green meadows are a photographer's delight. Khajjiar Lake is situated at the centre of the plains.
