Frogging in Kubah National Park (5-6 Hours)

1800 hours pick up from your hotel to Kubah National Park. Arrival Kubah National Park HQ, start walking up the Summit Road towards the frog pond. Along the way, be on the watch for frogs along the side of the road as well as nocturnal wildlife in the forest. The tiny Matang narrow mouth frog can sometimes be spotted at the side of the road amongst the pitcher plants. The frogs deposit their eggs on the sides of the pitcher and the tadpoles live in the pitcher plant until they emerge as young frogs. Adult males are only 10.6-12.8 mm in size so vigilance is required. At the frog pond, search for frogs and listen to wonderful frog sounds. Stand in the middle of Borneo rainforest and listen to a living orchestra of wildlife. After your frogging experience, walk back to the park HQ and depart Kubah around 2200 hours returning to Kuching and your hotel.

Tour Include: English speaking guide, entrance fees & transfers

Note: Please ensure you have an early dinner before the tour. Bring a good torch (flashlight) or head lamp, drinking water, mosquito repellent, snacks, poncho or raincoat. Wear good walking shoes.

Tanjung Datu National Park (3D2N)

Day 1: Kuching - Tanjung Datu National Park 3D2N [Lunch/Dinner]

0900hrs, pick up from hotel's lobby and proceed by road (approximately 2 hrs) to the small coastal town of Sematan. Lunch will be served in a local food outlet in Sematan. After lunch, continue by road to the Malay fishing village of Telok Melano. Take a speed boat (approximately 15-20 minutes) to Tanjung Datu National Park. Arrive at Tanjung Datu National Park, walk across the beach and settle in at the park HQ.

(Note: when the tide is low or sea conditions prevent boat landings at the park HQ, arrival is at a nearby small bay (Telok Upas) followed by a 15 minutes' walk to the Park HQ.)

After settling in, go on short walk on either the Telok Upas, Viewpoint or Belian trails. Return to the park HQ around 1600 hours. The rest of the day is at your own leisure. Relax on the beach, have a swim or visit the turtle hatchery. Enjoy dinner at the park HQ. After dark go on short night walk and search for wildlife such as wild boar, sambar deer, mouse deer, barking deer, civet cats and other nocturnal creatures. Return to the park HQ. Your guide will inform you if any turtles come ashore at night to nest. If so, the rangers will allow you to watch the turtles but only when they have started laying eggs. Please note turtle sightings are not guaranteed. Overnight at Forest Hut with mattresses, bedding and mosquito netting are provided (very basic accommodation).

Things to bring:-

Wear good flat walking shoes, Insect Repellent, Hat, Swimwear, Towel, Sun-block lotion, raincoat, torch or flash light, change of clothes, personal medication and personal toiletries.

Day 2: Tanjung Datu National Park [Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner]

After breakfast, 0800hrs depart for a jungle trek along the Pasir Antu Laut trail. Enjoy the forest scenery along the 2.7 km trail and keep a look out for wildlife. Gibbons, banded langurs and hornbills are sometimes spotted on this trail. Midway along the trail you will come to a small stream. Take a short break before continuing through the pristine forest to Antu Laut beach. Have a swim at the beach before returning along the forest trail. Half way along the trail turn left onto a small track that leads to the main turtle beach. Huge boulders are found along the coast here where the rainforest runs right down to the beach. Admire the views before walking back along the beach to the park HQ. Have a late lunch at the park HQ. After lunch you will have your time to explore the wildlife and vegetation around the park HQ on your own or take a walk together with your guide along one of the other short trails around the Headquarter. Dinner at the park HQ. Overnight at Forest Hut.

Sea Turtle Adoption Program (3D/2N)

Graceful swimmers that spend most of their time underwater, they have survived almost unchanged since the Triassic period, some 200 million years ago. However, the breeding habits that have served them so well for so long are now contributing to their extinction. Sea turtles mature slowly and only start to breed between 15 to 50 years of age. Females usually produce eggs once in every four or five years. They largely migrate back to their beach of birth, sometimes across distances of more than 3000 km. The peak seasons for sea turtles nesting range from the month of May to September each year. Sea Turtle Adoption Program (STAP) is a unique eco tourism initiative to save this endangered species which allows volunteers to actively participate in turtle conservation efforts. This program aims to create awareness among public on the importance of sea turtles conservation and at the same time to encourage knowledge sharing on this noble conservation efforts.

Kubah National Park & Matang Wildlife Day
Trip (6-7 Hours) (L)

In the morning depart from your hotel in the city to commence a Full day trip to Matang Wildlife Centre and Kubah National Park which is only 21 km from Kuching. Matang Wildlife Centre, part of Kubah National Park, house endangered wildlife in large enclosed areas of rainforest or spacious cages. An informative centre with educational program in the sanctuary, give visitors the opportunity to learn about wildlife conservation. The highlight of the trip is focused on the Orang Utan's training program where some young Orang Utans, having being rescued from captivity are being thought or retrained in the ways of the wild, unique cultures. The various animals which can be found all over Sarawak, kept in large cages or enclosures so the animals can move about freely. Some of the animals kept here are saltwater & freshwater crocodiles, pheasants & birds, bearcats, civets, deer's, porcupines, sun bears, macaques, gibbons and orang utans. (Feeding times: 9am & 3pm)

Then, proceed to Kubah National Park tour. Take the Main Trail from Park HQ between 1-1.5 hours to meet up with the Waterfall Trail. Kubah Waterfall Trail is an excellent, moderately difficult half day walk through very wet rainforest. It has some steep and slippery sections. From the summit road, the trail steadily descends into the Rayu river valley and the change in vegetation is visually striking as well as palpable - it's incredibly damp and humid at the bottom. The trail crosses over several creeks, providing you with opportunities to look for wildlife like otters, frogs and birds. The waterfall itself lies directly ahead. It is a wide curtain of water which falls 10m down a sheer sandstone wall, onto a granite slab and into a small, clear pebbly pool. It is a beautiful bathing spot. Another smaller waterfall flows into the left hand side of the pool (looking upstream). Look out for black spotted rock frogs in this area and along the riverbank - their spectacular leaps will probably catch your eye before you spot them. After this experience you will take the trail back to the Parks Headquarter and return to your hotel. Lunch will be provided. (Note: This trail is slippery when wet, leeches are very common. Despite being mostly shaded, it is humid, and you will sweat a lot).

Note: Put on good walking shoes, cotton clothing to remain comfortable, wide brimmed hat / cap and sun block lotion.

Tour Include: English speaking guide, entrance fees, 1 lunch & transfers

Gunung Gading National Park (6-7 Hours) - (L)

Gunung Gading is home to the world's largest flower, the Rafflesia, which can grow up to one meter in diameter. When in bloom the flower gives off nasty smell which attracts flies and other insects. The Rafflesia has no specific season, taking nine months to mature and flowering for only 4 or 5 days before dying. Gunung Gading also has some enjoyable walks and challenging jungle treks.

In the morning depart from the hotel in the city to commence a full day trip to Gunung Gading National Park. The tour will start with a drive from Kuching city for about 1.5 hours to Gunung Gading National Park. At the registration, you will discover if the Gods have been kind to you..whether today, there is a Rafflesia in bloom. Then you will proceed through the park, and hopefully along one of these thick jungle trails, there will be a Rafflesia hiding, biding you to get a closer look. Your guide/park guide will explain about the plant life at this park to you. Local lunch will be at Lundu Town before return to hotel. (Note: Put on good walking shoes, cotton clothing to remain comfortable, wide brimmed hat / cap and sun block lotion.)

Remark: We cannot guarantee a blooming Rafflesia at all time. If a Rafflesia can be seen at the Park, the group first will proceed to the location of this Rafflesia and have their time to enjoy this once-in-a-lifetime experience before we will continue with the Waterfall Trail.

Tour Include: English speaking guide, entrance fees, 1 lunch & transfers

Bau Fairy & Wind Caves (6 Hours) - (L)

In the morning depart from your hotel in city to commerce Bau Fairy and Wind Caves Tour. The local people of Bau Town, hold this cave in high reverence. To reach this cave, you will be driven past countryside of Sarawak for about 45 km, passing several farms and plantation, to reach Bau town. Your local guide will be proud to explain to you the agricultural methods of the local farmers of Sarawaks. Bau town, a small town inhabited and the Bidayuh's a tribe living in Sarawak, is fascinating small up-country town for the visitor.

The Caves of Fairies is about 8 km from Bau Town, located on Mount Kapur. The entrance of the cave is about 36 meters above the base of the cliff. A concrete staircase of over 100 steps will lead you to entrance of the cave. The beautiful view that you can see, up from the entrance of the cave, of the valley below, with its forest and fields is a wonderful relief after the climb.

From the entrance, a wooden staircase will lead you to the Chambers of the caves of Fairies. Don't hold your breath when you see the extremely human like stalagmites and stalactites, or feel the presence of fairies!!! For the Bidayuh tribe who live in Bau today, the Chamber of this cave is believed to be the home of fairies, and also home to the people who turned to stone in the legendary Kapur village. You will be held spell bound as you stand in the presence of fairies, and listen to your guide tell you the Legend of the Caves of Fairies, and the stone people. However, to the Chinese people, who live in same town, they believe this cave to be the Home of their Gods and Goddess, you will see worships of two different religions in this cave, the pagan of fairy religion of native Bidayuhs, and the Chinese ancestral worship, burning of joss sticks and offerings.

From the Chamber, these are a path leading to the hilltop of Mount Kapur, where you can get a panoramic view of the surrounding villages, valleys and forest below. The tour continues with a visit to the next cave, The Wind Cave. Staircase and plank walks lead to the main cave and two underground tunnels. A continuous breeze surge through the tunnels, giving the cave its name. Here, you can also sit and relax under the big Sun shades made of tropical hardwood, surrounded with forest and a river running alongside the cave. You may wish to take a cool dip in the river. Toilet and changing rooms are available for your convenience. After the tour, you will be transferring back to Kuching.

Remark: Fairy Cave closed every Monday & Wind Cave closed every Tuesday. Strictly no slippers or sandal for caves tour.

Note: Put on good walking shoes, cotton clothing to remain comfortable, bring a good torch (flashlight) or head lamp, drinking water & insect repellent.

Tour Include: English speaking guide, entrance fees, torch light, lunch & transfers
