

The Chilean Customs Chamber

guild association

CÁMARA
ADUANERA
AGENTES DE ADUANA

History and presence

- Founded in 1939, the Chilean Customs Chamber is the oldest guild association in this sector.
- Represents 72% of Chile's customs agents.
- Nationwide presence with 10 delegates across the country.
- Main office in Valparaíso.

Mission

- Contribute to the development of our members.
- Adherence to ethical standards and social responsibility.
- Strengthening the unity of the guild.
- Leadership national and internationally.

Focus on Efficiency

- Commitment to efficiency in the entire supply chain.
- Continuous improvement in import and export processes.
- Promotion of sustainable and inclusive trade.
- Contribution to economic growth and improved quality of life.

Collaboration

- Close collaboration with Chilean Customs.
- Compliance with customs regulations and tax collection.
- Authorities and trade stakeholders' permanent relationship.
- Promotion of SMEs as part of our professional social responsibility policy.

Services

- Training and advisory in customs, foreign trade and logistics.
- Technical and regulatory guidance.
- Promotion of safe and ethical trade practices.
- Representation of interests to both public and private stakeholders.

International Presence

- Founding member of ASAPRA in 1969.
- Collaboration with multiple customs agent associations in 21 countries.
- Engagement with international and regional organizations, including WCO.

camcap+ Chilean Customs

Instituto de Formación de la Cámara Aduanera de Chile A.G

Chamber's Training Institute.

Based on solid ethical and values, CAMCAP is a technical training institute, founded in 2009. Along these 14 years, it has positioned as top national foreign trade, business management and international trade's logistics chain training entity, promoting educational institutions, specialized organizations and other guilds' permanent relationship as well.

One of its core foundations is to worker's performance improvement and development of next generations' foreign trade specialists.

- Training courses and diplomas for employment skills' development
- ISO 9001:2015-AEO
- Creativity and Innovation Projects' management support
- 1,600 students
- Courses, diplomas and OAS implementation innovative training programs
- +4,900 training hours annually

Historical Milestones

- Recognition by law of Customs Agents as Customs' Auxiliary professional.
- Introduction of a groundbreaking pre-arrival processing procedure for import declarations.
- Development of standards for electronic Customs' declaration submission.

Challenges

- Transition to 100% electronic processes.
- Strengthening the role of Customs Agents.
- Collaborative work for a solid and efficient Chilean foreign trade.
- Cargo security and sustainability commitment.

Thanks for your attention

www.cadch.cl

CÁMARA
ADUANERA
AGENTES DE ADUANA