

6th Global AEO Conference

AEO Promotes Cross-border E-commerce Trade Innovation and Synergy Underpinned by Digitization

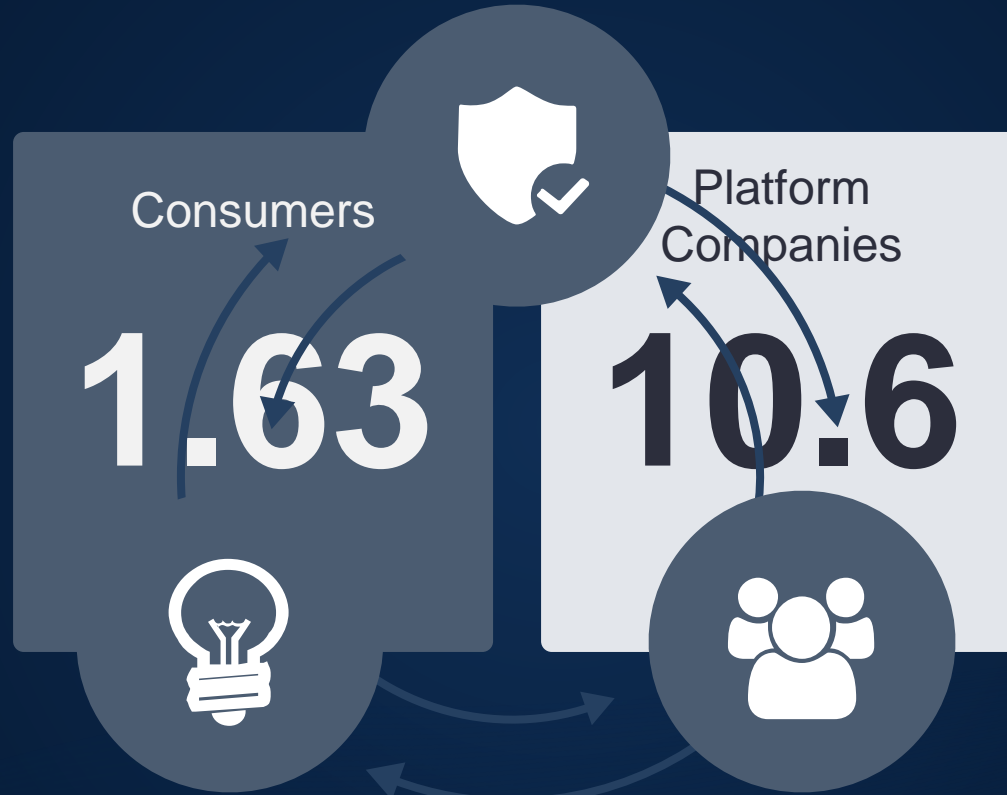

Wang Congbo, Hangzhou Customs District P.R.China

Security

Import and Export
Volume

2.38

trillion yuan

Cross-border
E-commerce
Enterprises

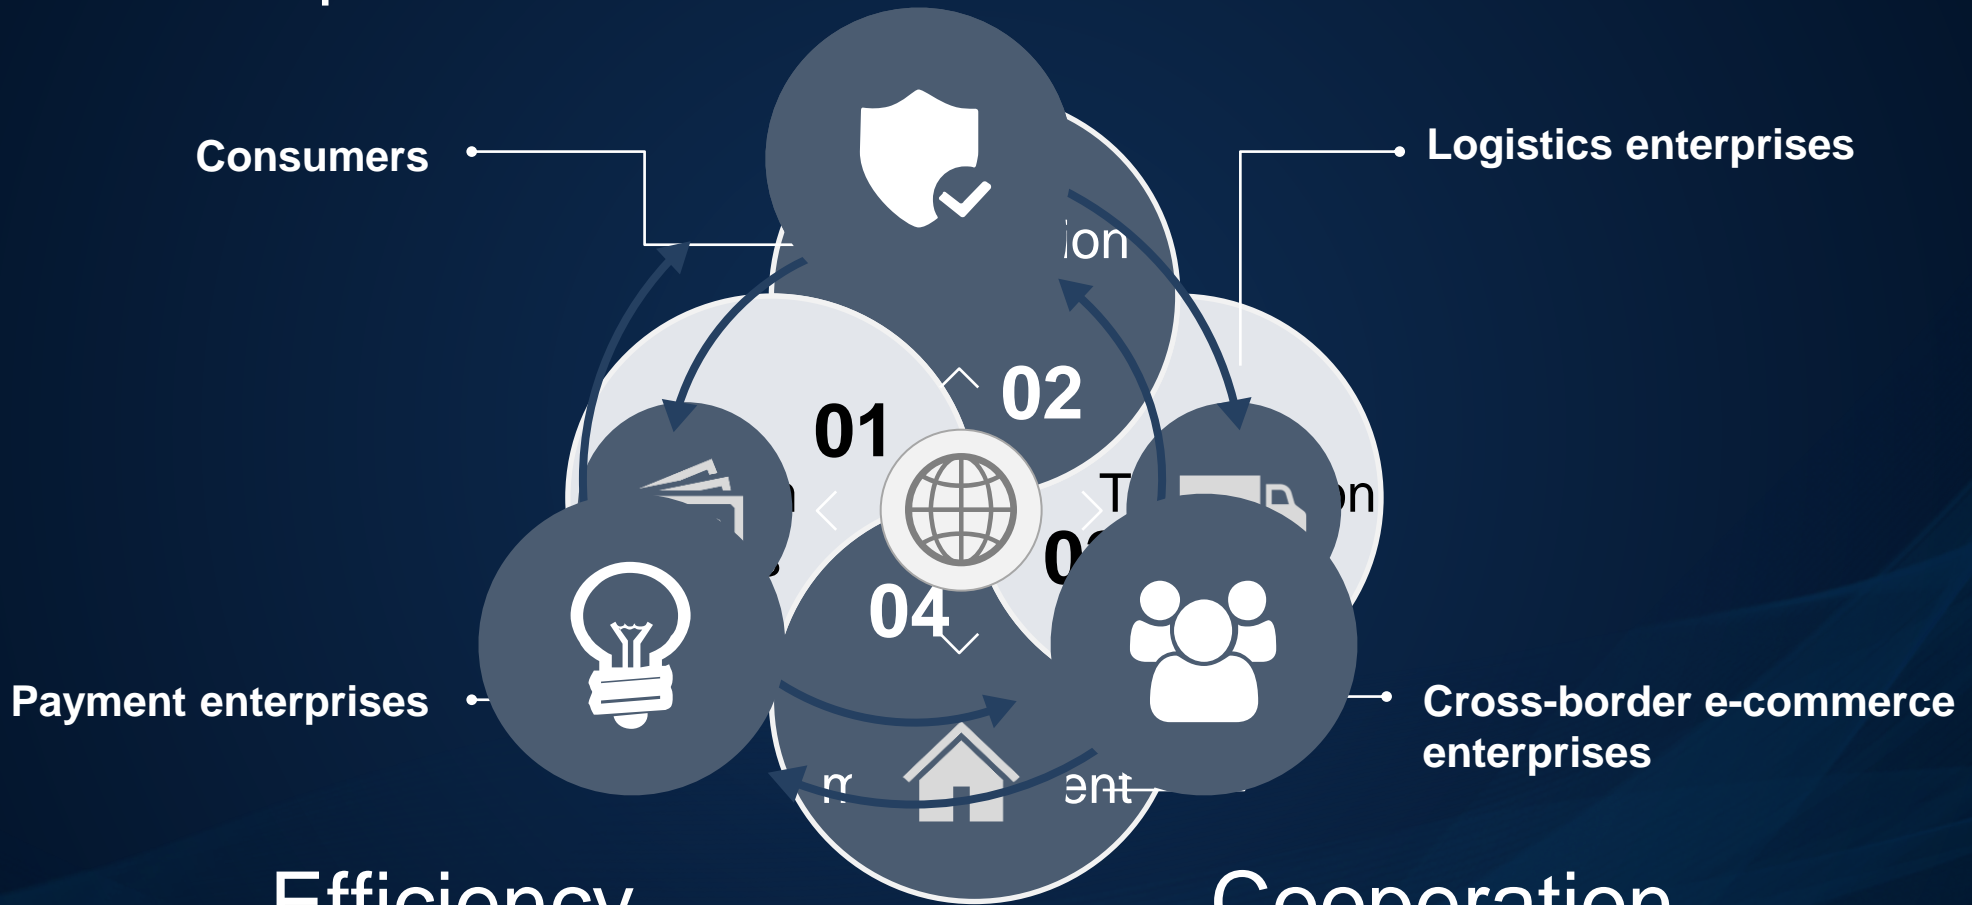

57.9

thousand

Efficiency

Cooperation

Security: Enhance the AEO Programme to Support Industry Compliance Practices

Efficiency
Develops specific certification standards platform to the enterprise features of a process developed all industry platform enterprises.

Cooperation
Develops specific certification standards platform to the enterprise features of a process developed all industry platform enterprises.

Cooperation: Foster a Harmonious Environment of Collaborative Efforts between the Customs and Enterprises.

5 platform enterprises participate in the “collaborative governance reform pilot.”

73.8%

Collaboration with platforms in the digital domain

Compliance risk control

All-volume

Credit assessment

All-time

All-area

Leverage the Data Advantages of Cross-border E-commerce to Establish an AEO Performance Measurement Mechanism

Explore the establishment of a scientific, quantitative AEO performance measurement mechanism

Expand the economic, industrial, and regulatory benefits derived from the AEO programme

Assess the benefits of the AEO programme and the satisfaction of enterprises

Facilitate the iterative enhancement of the AEO programme

Enhance International Mutual Recognition Cooperation within the Cross-border E-commerce Sector

Enhance the penetrability of the AEO programme across the entire cross-border e-commerce supply chain

Create a more transparent, stable, and predictable trading environment

Collaborative law enforcement and mutual recognition

Establish end-to-end logistics facilitation channels

Thank you

Wang Congbo, Hangzhou Customs District P.R. China

aeohz@customs.gov.cn