BOOKING REMINDERS:

Please be wary of housing piracy companies approaching delegates/sponsors/exhibitors to book rooms through their channels and claiming that they are the official accommodations provider or are acting on behalf of the Congress. These companies charge non-refundable deposits from the time when you make a reservation, making it impossible for delegates to cancel their reservations. In some situations, the reservations are sometimes non-existent, but payment has been taken.

The Congress appointed Sharp Travel Service as the official travel provider for hotel accommodation, airport transfers, shuttle services, pre and post tours and other travel related services booking. Sharp Travel Service will issue an official service voucher with valid confirmation number.

“Modern travel and lifestyle habits created a paradigm shift on how one looks at hotel luxury. Let’s be real, too much can sometimes be disconcerting that can lead to discomfort and even difficulty in sleeping. While most hotels offer luxury amenities, many seem to have taken for granted the basic luxury of rest and sleep. After all, this is one of the foundations of a productive activity whether you are in it for business or pleasure.”

Dinner Venue Options

Dinner Venue Options – Romulo's Café, Makati City

RATE: USD 55.00 per person | Min. of 50 persons

Inclusions: roundtrip transfers, buffet menu, services of English speaking guide

“Our grandfather, Carlos P. Romulo – 1st Filipino President of United Nations General Assembly, loomed large in our lives. When we decided to open a restaurant, we thought of sharing aspects of his multifaceted life through photographs. By recalling his career highlights and offering a peek into his personal life, we wish to pay him tribute while also perpetuating his legacy.”

Lolo, Lola Virginia, and their boys spent some of their happiest years in the US (1945–1962), where Lolo played a critical role in marshaling the Philippines through to full independence. In the embassy dining room he often entertained diplomats while Lola showcased her signature dishes. Today these heirloom dishes instantly take us back through time, to a magical family home called Kasiyahan.
