

Dr. Rakesh Kumar Tyagi is Graduated from S. N. Medical College, Agra and Post Graduate Diploma in Anesthesia from J. N. Medical College AMU Aligarh. He worked as senior resident Anesthesia and Critical Care in different Hospitals in New Delhi. Since 2002 he is working as consultant Critical Care at Agra. Presently he is Director, Dept. of Critical Care Medicine at Synergy Plus and Galaxy Hospitals Agra. He is also a recognized Teacher for IDCC. He was Secretary of Agra Branch of ISCCM from 2012 to 2017. He served as zonal member ISCCM for four years .

He played key role in Organizing National and State Conferences of ISCCM. He also served as Organizing Secretary for National Conferences of Trauma Care (ITCCS). He was Organizing Secretary for National Conference of ISCCM conducted at Agra in 2016. He was Chairman Finance Committee for National Conference of Anaesthesia at Agra in 2018. He is founder member of Society for Neuro Critical Care (SNCC). He received Presidential Citation in 2009 & 2016 from Indian Society of Critical Care Medicine.

He served for tribals in Arunachal Pradesh for two years through Vanvasi Kalyan Ashram a N.G.O on Honorary basis. Currently He is also working as president & advisor for Emergency and Critical Care services for Swami Vivekanand Health Mission Society Uttarakhand. SVHM Society is providing health services to poor and needy through its twelve hospitals. Since its inception in 2012 it has provided health services to more than two million patient