

Dr. Mohd Saif Khan is a distinguished medical professional with extensive qualifications, including an MBBS from Coimbatore Medical College (2008), an MD in Anaesthesiology from Lady Hardinge Medical College (2012), a Diplomate of National Board (2013), a Post-Doctoral Fellowship in Critical Care from JIPMER (2013), and a DM in Critical Care Medicine from Tata Memorial Hospital, Mumbai (2018). With over 15 years of experience, Dr. Khan has held key roles such as Post-doctoral Fellow and Senior Resident at JIPMER, Assistant Professor at Pondicherry Institute of Medical Sciences, and Senior Resident at Tata Memorial Hospital. He further served as Associate Professor at Rajendra Institute of Medical Sciences (2019-2022) and is currently the Consultant ICU and Program Director for the Saudi Board of Critical Care at King Hamad University Hospital, Bahrain (2023-present).

Dr. Khan is an accomplished academician, having published numerous PubMed-indexed papers, book chapters, and a critical care book. He is a dedicated mentor for EDIC, DM/DrNB, and Saudi Board fellowship programs in critical care. His expertise spans critical care, anaesthesiology, and medical education, with a steadfast commitment to advancing patient care and fostering academic excellence.