3.3 A nominator can only provide one (1) Letter of Nomination. The repeated nomination may result in the rejection of all Letters of Nomination. The following supporting documents shall be submitted:

- a) Nomination form
- b) Description of the achievement in the field of dietetics

3.4 The ASG committee would invite the nominee to submit the application package, including an electronic portfolio (See e-portfolio), starting 15th May 2024.

3.5 Nominees must submit an e-portfolio of their supporting materials to the MDA Award Committee latest by 31st May 2024 for the evaluation process

4. E-Portfolio

The e-portfolio (electronic portfolio) is an electronic collection of evidence that shows your journey in the dietetics profession over time. The e-portfolio should encompass material relevant to the “Merit Criteria” (see below) and include evidence of achievement, photos, and/or videos. It should highlight the most impactful project/ activities relevant to the award.

To facilitate the review process, the material must be presented in electronic form, in the following order and include:

- Brief Highlights –
 - A brief one-para highlight of no more than 250 words provides a clear and thematic picture describing the nominee’s accomplishment. The abstract may be used for the website / Facebook in highlighting the award recipients.
- Personal Statement –
 - the personal statement is a section to highlight and simplify the work journey and achievement, including future aspirations for the profession and MDA. The personal statement should not be more than 2 pages. The following is the sample e-portfolio.

- Curriculum Vitae –
 - A comprehensive document lists the qualifications and achievements. The CV is more detailed than a resume, but for this award submission, the CV should not be more than 5 pages.
 - Include your personal detail, academic history, professional achievement, and current roles and teaching responsibilities, especially in clinical teaching. Besides, the contributions to the MDA and other achievements (e.g in media or involvement in University activities, recognition/ awards) should also be included in the CV.

- Evidence for the Merit Criteria –
 - This section should demonstrate your role as a CI and provide evidence for the following “Merit Criteria”. The materials relevant to the “Merit Criteria” such as evidence of achievement, photos, and/or videos can be included. The most impactful project/ activities relevant to the award must be highlighted.

- Other significant contributions (if any)

- Examples of e-portfolio can be found here:
