

Directly Observed Procedural Skills (DOPS)

Trainees Full Name:
Hospital:
Trainees I.C. No.:		Date of Assessment:	/ / 20__

PROCEDURE: MANUAL IN-LINE STABILISATION (MILS) for ENDOTRACHEAL INTUBATION

	SATISFACTORY	NEEDS IMPROVEMENT	COMMENTS
Knowledge - patient assessment, indications, intubation options	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Pre-procedural patient preparation – explanation, IV access, monitoring	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Pre-procedural difficult airway equipment and resuscitation drugs preparation - videolaryngoscopes, supraglottic airways, bougie, McCoy laryngoscope, etc.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
MILS technique - instruction to assistants, position of assistants and intubator, use of hard cervical collar/lateral blocks/sandbag, MILS maintained throughout procedure	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Endotracheal intubation technique- pre-oxygenation, mask ventilation when applicable, use of videolaryngoscopy, removal of hard cervical collar, avoid cervical spine movement throughout procedure, reapplication of hard cervical collar	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Overall Ability to Perform Procedure	Competent to Perform Unsupervised <input type="checkbox"/>	Requires Direct Supervision (Repeat DOPS) <input type="checkbox"/>
---	--	--

Comments and feedback: (aspects of good practice/suggested areas for learning and development)

Supervisor's Position: Consultant Specialist

Supervisor's Name:
Supervisor's Signature.:		Trainee's Signature:	