

CV - DR. NADESH SITHASANAN

Mr. Nadesh graduated from Thanjavur Medical College in South India in 1990. After completion of his House Surgeoncy at Taiping Hospital he moved to Alor Setar Hospital to commence Surgical training under Mr. R.R. Naidu. He acquired his FRCS (Ed) in 1995, and continued as Specialist General Surgeon before embarking on a journey of dedicated Paediatric Surgical training in 1997.

His formative years of training in Paediatric Surgery were at the busy Royal Hospital for Sick Children at Yorkhill in Glasgow, Scotland. In 2002 he served as a Senior Registrar at the Women's and Children's Hospital in Adelaide, South Australia where he acquired advanced training in Minimally invasive Surgery of childhood . This was then followed by a further two years of Paediatric Surgical work as a Senior Registrar in Queen's Hospital and City Hospital Nottingham, England, during which period he acquired his FRCS Paediatric Surgery in 2004.

Upon his return to Malaysia he served as a Consultant Paediatric Surgeon and Paediatric Urologist and Associate Professor at University Malaya Medical Centre.

In 2007 he joined the Penang Medical College as an Associate Professor of Surgery and provided Paediatric Surgical services at the Penang Hospital. After a 6 month stint here, he moved to full time private practice at Gleneagles Hospital Penang where he currently provides the Paediatric Surgical and Paediatric Urological services as an independent consultant.
