

Dr. Prem Kumar Chandrasekaran, Consultant Neuropsychiatrist
MBBS (M'pal), M.Psych.Med (Malaya), F.Neuropsych (Melb), FAMM (M'sia)

Dr. Prem has been the Head of Neurobehavioural Services at Penang Adventist Hospital since 2002. He had previously worked in Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Kota Kinabalu, University of Malaya Medical Centre, Kuala Lumpur, St. Charles Hospital, London and St. Vincent's Hospital, Melbourne.

He has a Fellowship in Neuropsychiatry, been accredited for ECT and Psychopharmacology, additionally trained in Dementia, Old-age Depression and Bipolar Disorder and certified in Transcranial Magnetic Stimulation Neuronavigation.

He had served as Head of Medical Unit at Penang Adventist Hospital, is a Fellow of the Academy of Medicine of Malaysia and currently the Field of Practice reviewer, CPD Accreditation Team member and the founder and representative of the Psychiatry Chapter of the College of Physicians.

He was the Founding Editor of his Alumni Medical Journal and has published articles on Neuropsychiatry, Psychopharmacology and Biological Psychiatry in local and international journals. He has contributed to book chapters and is the author of the handbook 'The Varied Masks of Bipolarity'.

He lectures at the Royal College of Surgeons-University College Dublin's Malaysia Campus in Penang where he holds the post of Associate Professor and also conducts training in collaboration with medical associations and selected pharmaceutical companies.