

CURRICULUM VITAE

MR. S. NADESH

Mr. Nadesh completed his medical studies in 1990 in Thanjavur Medical College, South India and then returned for his housemanship to Taiping Hospital. Subsequent to the year here he went onto becoming a Medical officer and Surgical trainee in a premier Surgical Unit headed by Mr.R.R.Naidu i a renowned and versatile Surgeon in Alor Setar Hospital.

He acquired his FRCS(Edinburgh) qualifications in 1995, and continued to practice General Surgery till 1997, following which he embarked on a career dedicated to Paediatric Surgery and Paediatric Urology acquiring a vast experience during his formative years in Glasgow, Adelaide and Nottingham. He acquired his FRCS Paediatric Surgery , UK in 2004.

He served as a Lecturer and then as an Associate Professor of Surgery at UMMC, KL and had a busy career in this tertiary referral centre. He deals with all aspects of Surgery and Urology in childhood and also Minimally Invasive Surgery in children.

He has presented extensively in local and International Conferences and has published many papers in Indexed Medical Journals.