

ABSTRACT – DR. MD. AMIN IBRAHIM

PRD: Optimising the Goals of Asthma Management and Improving Treatment Adherence

The speaker will be highlighting the unmet needs in asthma management to create awareness on the importance of proactive regular dosing (PRD).

Additionally, the significance of addressing the underlying inflammation of asthma will be further emphasized in the case studies that will be shared.

The speaker will further share on GINA recommendation in diagnosis of asthmatic patients with role of GPs in the management of mild-moderate asthma patients.

He also intends to discuss on pharmacoeconomics perspective of the current situation in management of asthmatic patients and considerations to be mindful of, in the treatment approach.