

Research Intent for the Young: Let's Cultivate it – PCC 14

Chief Mentor	Dr. Arpit Sikri
Suitable for	New Learners, Intermediate learners & Advanced Learners
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Learning objectives The aim of this online PCC is to brace the young and budding researchers and clinicians with the skills related to research in prosthodontics to orient them to constructively conduct and publish research. • Background information Dear participants will gain insight into the entire process of writing an effective research proposal using activities that include data mining, evidence-based approach and steps involved to structuralize a manuscript. • Important topics/concepts covered <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Introduction 2. Evidence based approach 3. Data mining – collection of data 4. How to choose a journal? 5. How to cite an article? 6. Level of Evidence - Scientific Writing & categories 7. Tips to write a research paper 8. Role of plagiarism – Revise your paper 9. Submission – following journal specific guidelines 10. What to do if your research paper is rejected? 11. Challenges 12. Trends in Research 13. Take home points • Whether only lecture or includes any video demonstration – Both lecture & online video demonstration
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Whether you will provide any learning materials (soft copy) to participants beforehand 	Yes
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Any instructions for the participants 	Dear Participants. Kindly please read the soft copy before attending the PCC.	