

A Birthday Wish

Aparajita (Shruti Nada Poddar)

Those wondrous eyes that look beyond
And fathom worlds of hues
A beautiful mind that chose to live
Beyond the world of views

That lovely smile, that dances forth
With feelings from the heart
The grace of gait in every step
That sets you so apart!

Divinity shines from deep within
In a life of joy ad woe
The pain has chiseled you my love
And made your spirit grow

The challenges that you have walked
Have made the mind perceive
The depth of being in every "thread"
That you go on to weave

You are - You are a wondrous being
Of beauty and of love
And may this very special day
Bring blessings from above
