SARA KHAN

happens to be an outstanding actress and a transformational coach, and an author, she has rooted herself in this industry strongly in the last 20 years!

Apart from being an actress and creating massive transformation in the lives of millions of women, Sara by heart is also an artist.

Sara had a passion for art since she was a kid. Colors, paintbrushes, looking at the world from her unique point of view, these things would come naturally to her. And, she fanned the flame by acting upon it.

As Sara was growing up, she would paint and create art pieces for herself. It was an expression for her that she boundlessly painted on the canvas. It had emotions. However, none of that work has been exhibited before.

Sara loves abstract art where she would play with colors and merge them to create something incredible! Her canvas is that one space where she pours her imaginations without any rules and restrictions.

Imagine a kid, naturally expressing her thoughts and passions onto a canvas, grows up to do the same. That's the kind of burning passion Sara has for her art!

FIRST TIME EVER

Sara is bringing her unique, precious art for the world to see too! For the first time, Sara is exhibiting some of her best work, so she can touch the world with her colours.

Sara also loves to paint

HORSES

as they happen to be her favourite animal!
She even has two of her own in London!
